Olexandr Mazur. I created and organized raiders into a team. Nikita Gavrulenko wrote a more than half of all js files and some java clasess. Nikita Locmanenko created and deployed a database and he described a need in jira board. Angelina Osiptsova designed a website. Mykola Tashkinov was support engineer and tester. He served database while the Nikita Locmanenko was absent, he wrote a frontend while Nikita Gavrulenko was writing java classes. And here is public github repository:
